Paul Halbeck, an Extreme Christian

- I have had two major jobs working in both electronic and computer technologies for about twenty-five years; you can view my resume. In 2002, I left my second job in computers and moved from Illinois to Colorado to attend Colorado Bible College \(CBC\). As was my way in the past of doing things, I immersed myself in my new focus, "the ministry," learning and knowing God's Word, and to the best of my abilities, living the Word has now become my new lifestyle. I began studying God's Word back when I was in Illinois, and after much time my knowledge of computer languages, interest in making web pages, and knowledge of the Word all came together in one rather silly web page, later to become a small set of web pages and now the website that you see, and it has been growing ever since, along with my personal growth in God's Word and my walk in His kingdom.
- I call myself an extreme Christian because I believe that God's Word is more than enough to meet whatever our human needs might be. Whether our need is healing (physically or emotionally), mending a broken relationship, providing our daily provision, or blessing us with peace, love, and joy. Jesus said that we are to seek ye first the kingdom of God and His righteousness, and all these things will be added unto us, Matthew 6:33. I am just extreme enough to take His Word literally, believing that the Word is living, Hebrews 4:12, and His Word is Spirit and it is life, John 6:63. I believe that taking the "Gos-pill" will do more good than any medical procedure, taking of an antibiotic, or any drug or supplement. If we but know and believe His Word, His Word can do more than the best marriage counselor or psychologist or the best financial planner, and His Word can provide us with true love, joy, and peace that the world is incapable of providing.
- I encourage you to also become an extreme believer with me in God's Word, expecting that when we speak His Word, He will work with us, confirming His Word with signs following, Mark 16:20.
